

K-love serves me and my local community by providing a calendar of Christian events in the area. This information is generally not available from other sources, so K-love is my only connection to special concerts, programs, seminars, etc. K-love also has pastors on call 24 hours a day, available to anyone who calls from anywhere. That is another invaluable service K-love provides to its listeners. Please keep it on the air.